WHAT WE OFFER

On-Site Consultation

We Come to You!

We know that teachers are some of the busiest professionals out there, and coordinating schedules - especially when multiple teachers are involved - can be a challenge. That's why we offer the convenience of on-site consultations. A professional and experienced ProTrax consultant will visit your school, equipped with access to our extensive backtrack database, ready to help you plan your school's production. Whether you need assistance choosing the right music or guidance on arrangements, we'll be there to ensure everything runs smoothly.

WHAT WE OFFER

Backtrack Catalogue

Choose from over +10,000
Quality Backtracks

This is what ProTrax is known for - an extensive music library of top-quality backtracks in multiple keys, covering all genres, languages, and eras. Teachers have access to a diverse selection of songs, ensuring the perfect fit for every school production. With the help of our ProTrax Consultant, your search can be tailored to identify the ideal tracks for your event. And when a specific backtrack isn't available, ProTrax steps in with a custom arrangement, specially crafted for your school's performance needs. We also offer medleys, combining multiple backtracks into one seamless track to elevate your production.

Rest easy knowing that ProTrax backing tracks are professional, authentic reproductions or new arrangements and are NOT the original recordings or backing tracks sourced from the internet or other companies. ProTrax reports all sales of backing tracks to CAPASSO (Composers, Authors, and Publishers Association) in Southern Africa, ensuring that our backing tracks are sold legally and that you can use our material with confidence. Our backing tracks may be used for live performances. However, copyright law requires a license for recording with the backing track if the recording will be distributed on CD, DVD, digital download, or if you are streaming your performance using the backing track (e.g., YouTube, Facebook Live, website, or other livestream platforms). Always ensure that any backing track you use meets all legal requirements, especially if you plan to record and publish a school production.

WHAT WE OFFER

Vocal Coaching

Let us assist you with preparing your singers for recordings

ProTrax is here to support and complement the work of teachers, offering expert guidance to help prepare your singers for their recordings in studio. Enhance and rehearse your group harmonies and solo performances with our friendly vocal coaching services.

Our coaches provide guidance on key elements such as pitching, breathing, articulation, harmonies, blending, projection, and tone quality. With our help, your singers will be confident as they step into the recording studio.
